

THE CHALLENGE

Every year, more than 90,000 people take part in Hamburg räumt auf!, making it Germany's largest CleanUp initiative. The challenge was to keep a well-established campaign fresh and relevant while engaging new audiences and strengthening participation across all generations.